THE COMFORTABLE BABY CARRIER

Especially the tiniest of babies want to feel that special sense of closeness – wherever they are and whatever the time. With the baby carrier CONCORD WALLABEE, parents can move freely and yet maintain direct contact with baby's body every step of the way. The baby can be carried in two positions, either against the tummy or back. WALLABEE is tailor-made to provide an ergonomically ideal posture to support babies' sensitive bone structure, corresponding to the spread-squat sitting position recommended by orthopaedic specialists. A neck cuff plus an extra wrap with continuous size adjustment gently and comfortably support the baby's head. The outer fabric is 100% cotton, so it is kind to baby's delicate skin.

- Can be worn on the front or the back, quick and easy to put on
- Ergonomic design: corresponds to the spread-squat sitting position recommended by orthopaedic specialists
- Neck cuff comfortably supports the head
- Outer fabric is 100% cotton, so soft on the skin
- Wide shoulder strap with cross-over belt guide to ensure optimum weight distribution
- Stable hip strap takes the weight off the wearer's shoulders
- Web width adjustable to suit the individual
- Unisex design, suitable for him and her
- Packs up small – ideal for taking away with you
- By tying the carrying strap, the baby carrier attaches to the body well
